KEYS TO A SUCCESSFUL BENEFIT NIGHT

PROMOTE! PROMOTE! PROMOTE!

Successful fundraisers start with enthusiastic organizations! Personally reminding members, family, and friends as well as utilizing social media contribute to higher levels of fundraising involvement. Share the day before and the day of the event.

EMAIL & SOCIAL MEDIA

Make the most of your fundraiser tools by using email and social media. This saves you time, money, and promotes your event!

TIMING

Ideally, fundraisers need to be promoted starting one week prior to your fundraiser so it's fresh on everyone's mind.

For Example: Your benefit is on Tuesday. Send out your first blast Friday, then again on Sunday. Send a reminder on Monday night that tomorrow's dinner plans are already made and then send one last time Tuesday at lunch.

Keep in mind the more you and your group share the more dough you will raise!
